The purpose of this instruction is to establish a curfew for juvenile dependents residing on Fairchild AFB and government controlled or leased housing areas off base. This instruction applies to all dependent children and guests under the age of 18. All military and civilian sponsors will be responsible to ensure compliance with the contents of this instruction.

SUMMARY OF REVISIONS

Curfew days were changed from Sunday through Thursday, 2300 - 0500 and Friday, Saturday and Holidays, 2400 - 0530 to Sunday through Saturday 2200 - 0530. Special consideration was given to 16 and 17 year olds, allowing them a 2300 curfew Sunday through Saturday.

1. General Procedures:

1.1. The following hours are established as curfew for juveniles under the age of 16: Sunday through Saturday, 2200 - 0530

1.2. The following hours are established as curfew for juveniles ages 16 and 17: Sunday through Saturday, 2300 - 0530

1.3. Juveniles may exceed these hours whether escorted or not, if they are returning from a chaperoned function on or off base; however, they must proceed by the most direct route to their assigned quarters. They may also exceed these hours if they are sent on an errand by their parents, guardians, or other persons having the legal charge of such minor(s). After returning from this function, or errands, minors will not be allowed to remain on the street, in or upon any unoccupied premises or grounds within the limits of Fairchild AFB, or in government controlled or leased housing areas off-base. Exceptions will be made for children who are under the age of 18, who are returning home from their place of employment to an empty quarters.

1.4. Young people or guests 18 years of age and older, though excluded from the curfew, are prohibited from congregating in crowds within the streets mentioned in paragraph 1.3. when their actions or conduct are annoying to residents or their actions are such that they constitute an act of vandalism, malicious mischief, harassment, etc

1.5. The Security Police may detain and return to the Law Enforcement Desk, or to the sponsor, any person(s) found in violation of this instruction. If these young people are returned to the Law Enforcement Desk, the sponsor or guardian will be notified and instruction to come and take charge of said person(s). If the sponsor or guardian cannot be contacted, notify the sponsor's commander or First Sergeant; in addition the on-call legal officer will be contacted for guidance. In any event, a written report will be completed and forwarded to the Commander of the sponsor concerned.

2. Intent of this Instruction: This instruction is not intended to interfere with the normal routine of the residents of this installation, nor does it mean to be punitive in nature to the sponsors. The intent of this instruction is to decrease the encumber of disciplinary problems concerning dependent children and to maintain good order and discipline on Fairchild AFB and affiliated off base properties.
